

The most important things to know about separating waste

| Non-recyclable waste | Organic waste | Plastic and composite materials | Paper and cardboard | Coloured and clear glass | Metal | Electric appliances | Hazardous waste | Bulky waste |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Yes please – in the bin for non-recyclable waste | Yes please – in the bin for organic waste | Yes please – in the bin for plastic and composite materials | Yes please – in the bin for paper and cardboard | Yes please – in the bin for coloured or clear glass | Yes please – in the bin for metal | Yes please – in the bin for electric and electronic appliances | Yes please – in the bin for hazardous waste | Yes please – in bin for bulky waste |
| Waste that cannot be recycled such as broken porcelain and pottery, cigarette butts, ash from coal ovens, vacuum cleaner bags, toothbrushes, coat hangers, tights/pantyhose, disposable nappies/diapers, other hygiene items, broken toys, light bulbs, MCs/video cassettes. | Fruit and vegetable leftovers, stale and rotten food, egg shells, coffee grounds and filters, tea leaves and teabags, cut flowers, wood shavings, charcoal and ash, garden waste Organic waste bin: To maintain necessary hygiene standards, please use maize starch biodegradable bags | Tetrapack containers, plastic bottles for drinks, washing, cleaning and body care products, plastic lids, tops, containers, foil and tubes, packaging for soft drinks, coffee, vacuum and freezer packaging Composite materials e.g. packaging for pills Polystyrene/styrofoam is collected separately. | All printed matter including newspapers, magazines, prospectuses, notebooks, circulars, brochures, books, writing paper, catalogues, window envelopes, uncoated and clean paper Cardboard (please fold): cartons and boxes, corrugated cardboard, kraft paper bags | Hollow glass containers such as bottles, flacons, food jars, cosmetics bottles, glass vials/ampules Please take care to separate clear and coloured glass and remove the tops. Be sure not to include any returnable bottles as they can be reused. | Tin cans for food and drinks, aluminium foil, bottle caps Paint and varnish tins should be emptied and scraped to prevent their contents from spilling or dripping out. Please place spray cans in the bin for hazardous waste. | Large electric appliances, such as dishwashers, fridges and freezers, TVs, computers and monitors Small electric and electronic appliances, such as toasters, mobile phones, hairdryers, shavers, radios, calculators, etc. Fluorescent lamps, energy-saving light bulbs/tubes, batteries for such devices | Used oil, batteries, nitro-cellulose and other solvents, cosmetics, paints and varnishes, mercury, disinfectants, photo chemicals, medicines, acids, alkaline or other caustic agents, e.g. paint stripper, etc. Please deposit used cooking oil and fat at the oil- collection point. | Residual waste that because of its size or shape can't be deposited in the non-recyclable waste bin, for example sofas, mattresses, carpets and other floor coverings, large plastic objects (children's bath tubs, tubes, etc.) large boxes and suitcases, curtain rails, sports equipment, skis, prams. |

| No thanks – not in the non-recyclable waste bin | No thanks – not in the organic waste bin | No thanks – not in the bin for plastic and composite materials | No thanks – not in the bin for paper and cardboard | No thanks – not in the bin for coloured or clear glass | No thanks – not in the metals bin | No thanks – not in the bin for electric appliances | No thanks – not in the hazardous waste bin | No thanks – not in the bulky waste bin |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Waste that can be recycled! This includes waste paper, all packaging (glass, metal, cardboard, plastic), organic waste, old clothes and shoes, used electric and electronic devices. | Synthetic cat litter, vacuum cleaner bags, disposable nappies, cigarette butts, hazardous waste, non-recyclable waste, ash from coal ovens, packaging | Anything that is not packaging, e.g. broken toys, toothbrushes, coat hangers, tights/pantyhose, music and video cassettes, CDs | Carbon paper, cellophane, wallpaper, hygiene paper, paper tissues. These items go in the bin for non-recyclable waste. | Lids or caps, porcelain, earthenware bottles, ceramics, glass cutlery, drinking glasses, light bulbs, window panes, mirrors, wire glass | Composite materials, spray cans and gas cartridges, etc. that aren't completely empty. Pots, pans, bicycles or other scrap metal go in the scrap metal bin at the ASZ. | Toy train sets (rails, carriages), car-racing sets (tracks), CDs, MCs, video cassettes, toner cartridges | Empty paint and varnish containers, cleaning agents, etc. Such items go in the bin for packaging materials. | Other non-recyclable or organic waste, rubble, scrap metal, old clothes, wood, hazardous waste, electric and electronic appliances, packaging (large cartons, canisters), oil-radiators, garden clippings |
| Disposal is the responsibility of the property owner/ agent (non-recyclable waste bin). | Disposal is the responsibility of the property owner/agent (organic waste bin). | Disposal is the responsibility of the property owner/agent (yellow bag). | Disposal is the responsibility of the owner or agent and ASZ. | Please dispose of glass waste at the ASZ and the collection point. | Please dispose of waste metals at the ASZ. | Please dispose of old electric and electronic devices at the ASZ. | Please dispose of hazardous waste at the ASZ. | Please dispose of hazardous waste at the ASZ. |
| If you have any questions please contact the Flachgau-Nord Waste Disposal Advisory Office [Abfallberatung – Regionalverband] Tel: 06272/41217, email: office@flachgau-nord.at | | | | | | | | |

Translation supported by Social Network Oberndorf (SNO)